Bay St. Louis, Miss., under Act of March 3, 1879.

A score or more persons have died from meningitis in Memphis during the past month.

One hundred and nineteen billion cigarettes was the output of American tobacco factories last year, which means that there was about a thousand of the "coffin nails" manufactured for every man, woman and child in our country.

Mrs. A. K. Carney, prominent society woman and church worker of Clarksdale, Miss., was convicted of assault and battery on the pretty girl stenographer of her husband, last week, and given a jail sentence of ninety days and fined $500.00. Jealousy was at the bottom of the trouble.

Admiral Alfred Von Terpitz, lord high admiral of the German navy during the World War, has passed on, at the age of eighty-one years. He was the instigator of submarine warfare and his death will not be mourned by the kindred of thousands who met their end by the merciless employment of under water craft in that great struggle.

We have just seen a picture of Miss Aliki Diplapakou, a Grecian girl who was winner of the international beauty contest which awarded her the title of "Miss Europe" in competition with girls of twenty nations. If the likeness as shown in the paper before us is true to life, then the balance of the contestants were certainly a homely looking lot.

As all the world knows the ruling passion with some of the gentler sex is personal adornment, even unto their dying day. This is verified in two recent instances. A California woman who killed herself asked to be buried in white satin with yellow roses in her hand, while another in New York who jumped from a twentieth story window requested that she be clothed in pink satin when she was put beneath the sod.

BEAUTIES AND BENEFITS OF PROHIBITION?

Three hundred persons were in the hospitals of Oklahoma City, Okla., and as many more were being treated by physicians in their homes, victims of a strange malady with paralytic characteristics, apparently caused by the drinking of poisoned liquor. Most of them had lost the use of their feet and legs. No deaths have been attributed to the disease but medical men have, so far, been unable to determine whether the disability of the victims is permanent or not. Just another illustration of the beauties and benefits of our prohibition laws. In the old days red liquor would occasionally affect a fellow's legs but it seldom sent him to the hospital.

CLEAN UP AT HOME FIRST.

It is America's destiny to lead and save the world—not just now, of course, but after she develops rains and backbone enough to escape the rule of gangsters.—San Francisco Chronicle.
Why not include in the list our army of embezzlers, bribe givers, crooked officials, big and little grafters and others of their ilk? A sweet chance America has "to lead and save the world" until she does a little leading and saving right at home.

EXCEEDS PRESIDENT'S SALARY.

Babe Ruth, has finally signed a contract with the Yankee management to play baseball for two years, and will be paid the princely salary of $80,000 per season. And the ambition of every youngster playing on every diamond in the country will be that some day they will command a similar salary. However The Echo is of the opinion that it will be many a year when the "Bambino" will ever have an equal as a home run king.

SUNDAY MOVIES AT HATTIESBURG.

Arrest of the manager of a moving picture theater at Hattiesburg on a charge of violating the Sunday law by operating his show place, has had the effect of stirring up considerable feeling among the citizens in that splendid town. It is unfortunate that a difference of opinion should exist on any question which may lead to a division of the people that can only result in harm to the community.

HAD BETTER COME HOME AND STAY

The Echo would again repeat what it has asserted more than once and that is few representatives and senators now serving in the legislature will ever again sit in either branch of our lawmaking body. It is a very small minority of the present membership in both houses that has made the attempt to enact any constructive and work-while legislation futile.

WE DOTE LOT ON HERE.

President Hoover, after a cabinet meeting last Tuesday, announced that the United States will return to normal prosperity levels within the next thirty or sixty days. Let us hope these words were not spoken in a vain hope that the

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

Irrespective of class, color or creed, the whole nation is saddened and mourns the death of William Howard Taft who died at his home in Washington on Saturday afternoon. For several weeks he had been confined to his bed, and from the first little hope was entertained for his recovery, therefore the country was in a manner prepared for the announcement which came that he had passed away.

There have been few men in our national history who shared, and deservedly so, the universal love and respect of the whole people that he did. His genial disposition, learning, sincerity and strict integrity were outstanding qualities which challenged the admiration of the nation he served with distinction throughout a public career for near a half century.

He was a great American and in every matter affecting the welfare of his country his patriotism outweighed all other considerations, stalwart Republican that he was.

The highest official honors within the gift of the nation were bestowed upon him in perhaps larger measure than upon any other American since the foundation of our great Republic, and he proved worthy of every trust conferred upon him.

In accordance with his oft-expressed wish his remains today repose in Arlington national cemetery, the resting place where many of our nation's greatest statesmen and heroes are sleeping their last sleep.

Peace to his ashes.

GOVERNOR ADAM FORCES FEDERAL AID BILL OUT.

Since January 15th the Bailey-Kennedy Federal aid road bills have been reposing in the Senate roads committee files with no action. Lieutenant Governor Bidwell Adam evidently became tired of the tactics pursued by the senate road committee and he gave the chairman and the members a "dressing down," insisting that the bills be reported to the senate. These bills were reported almost immediately and the committee began the consideration of the Stansel Road bill, which passed the House 111 to 6 and which has also been in the senate roads committee files for quite a while.

Gov. Adam and Senator Foote are optimistic over the prospects of highway legislation, as are other members of the senate. Whether or not there will be any highway legislation at this session, remains with the senate. The House has done what it could. In his remarks relative to bringing out the road bills, Governor Adam stated that it was only fair that the senate body be given an opportunity to consider these highway bills and that the committee had no right to hold them indefinitely.

BILBO AND HIS PRINTING BILL.

For the fourth time during this administration, the Bilbo state printing plant bill has passed the Senate. The vote was 28 to 13. It has gone to the House of Representatives, where for the fourth time it will be killed. The fireworks attending consideration of this bill during former sessions were absent. It was just another day in the Senate. Only two speeches were made and both of them for the bill; one by the author and the other by Senator Yawn, who is slated to be appointed by Gov. Bilbo as state tax commissioner for the southern district. Opponents of the proposition just listened, knowing that regardless of the result in the Senate, the state printing plant bill would be well taken care of in the House.

Friends of Gov. Bilbo admit that they do not expect this bill to pass, but that it was introduced at this session so it could be made an issue in the next campaign. Gov. Bilbo has stated that he expects to make the race for state superintendent of education against W. F. Bond, with the state printing plant as the main issue.

The same author has two or three other bills, companions to the main bill, but they do not seem to be in a very great rush to consider them.

A VETERAN JURIST.

Judge Oliver Wendell Holmes, associate justice of the United States supreme court, celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday last Friday.

A veteran of the civil war on the union side, three times wounded, the Justice seemingly is in better health than for several years. He is constant in the discharge of his judicial duties, not having missed a session of the court during the present term, and being one of the court's most prolific members in the preparation and delivery of opinions.

For several weeks during the present term he was acting chief justice during the absence of Chief Justice Taft because of illness and following his resignation, before Chief Justice Hughes took a seat on the bench.

LITERARY DIGEST'S POLL.

The Literary Digest's poll on prohibition may be a very good way to find out just how the people feel about the question, which seems to be the issue most discussed at the present moment. It will be remembered that similar polls were made by the Digest in the two last presidential campaigns and in both instances the elections resulted as the polls indicated they would. The only trouble The Echo sees in the matter is that all the entire country will not have an opportunity to sign one of the Digest's questionnaires, as only a few million of the cards are to be sent out. However it will in a measure furnish the drift of sentiment on the question.

MIGHTY POOR INVESTMENT.

Commenting on the fact that there has been four sessions of the legislature in the past two years as a thing unparalleled in the annals of the State, Edgar S. Wilson in his "Mirrors of Mississippi" says: As a rule extraordinary sessions have been a poor investment for the taxpayers. Don't they know it? And just now they are in a frame of mind to see that nothing of the sort happens in the future by electing members to both houses who will devote their entire time to enacting laws and not to politics.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS CHRONICLED IN THE SEA COAST ECHO

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mr. John Rexach was a visitor to New Orleans on Monday, in which city he has business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mauffray announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Camella, to Mr. Adolph Orly, April 7, 1910, at their residence at Fenton, Miss.

Mr. George R. Rea, cashier of the Merchants Bank, accompanied by Mrs. Rea and baby Ethel, went down to New Orleans today on business and for a visit to relatives.

Mrs. F. Olivari, of Pass Christian, spent a few days with friends in this city during the week and was a guest of her relative, Mrs. C. Spotorno in Citizen street.

Mr. George C. Firsching, the popular and genial secretary-treasurer of the Peerless Oyster Co., was a business visitor to Biloxi on Tuesday.

Chester Randolph, a former pupil of the Bay St. Louis high school, while playing in the school yard on Tuesday, fell down in running and hurt an arm, fracturing it at the elbow. Dr. Manor and Dr. deMontluzin attended the unfortunate lad.

Mr. Albert C. Beyer is up and out again after a severe illness of several weeks' duration, the victim of gastritis and fever. He had quite a siege, but his friends are glad to learn of his recovery and hope that he will soon be his former self again.

Mr. George J. Toca and his charming bride, Miss Meta Moran, before her marriage, returned on Tuesday evening from their bridal trip east. They are charmingly domiciled in this city. Mr. Toca will make daily trips to and from his business in New Orleans.

A real estate deal of unusual importance was consummated this week when Mr. F. C. Bordages, Sr., and the heirs of the late J. B. Ibor sold their interest in the Clear Lake Harbor to the Virginia Land Company, developers of Waveland Terrace. We understand the new owners will beautify the place extensively and place it on the market.

Miss Josie E. Welch, well known newspaper writer of this city, is an applicant for the Bay St. Louis postmastership. She is a Republican, hence partisan as an applicant. The other applicants are Richard Mendes, Democrat, and Louis J. Pienas, Republican, the present incumbent.

Mrs. Phillip Bowen, recently charged, tried and discharged for the shooting of her husband Phillip Bowen in the rear of Waveland, has, through her attorneys, Messrs. McDonald and Marshall, filed papers for a divorce.

L. M. Gex, well known former merchant of this city, is preparing to enter the wholesale and retail liquor business at Dunbar, La., in the near future and hopes to serve his former patrons. He intends to open his business as soon as possible. He has the best wishes of a host of friends for success.

Mr. William Thomas Moon has issued invitations for the forthcoming marriage of his daughter, Frances Oleny, to Mr. John Henry, Jr., both of this city. The happy event will take place on the evening of Wednesday, April 19th. In advance the Echo felicitates the young couple upon the occasion of the anticipated happy event.

TEN YEARS AGO.

Miss Alys Memos, of New Orleans, is the attractive guest of Miss Joan Horton at the family home in Carroll avenue.

Our young friend, the Main street market man and his good wife—Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Quintini—are entertaining a little stranger, a daughter, at their home, whose arrival dates since a few days, thus giving them a nice little family of one son and three daughters.

Mr. John A. Green, Jr., prominently connected with the oil business at Houston, Texas, is here on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Green. He came to attend the graduation of his sister, Miss Margaret from St. Joseph's Academy.

Hon. W. A. Cuevas, prominent banker and resident of Pass Christian, was a business visitor to Bay St. Louis Saturday, guest of his relative Dr. A. A. Kergosien.

Mrs. E. W. Manor and two sons are here from West Point, Miss., and have taken a cottage in Uman avenue for the summer. Mrs. Manor finds a hearty and warm welcome in the midst of friends of her former home town.

Mr. W. A. McDonald returned home yesterday from an extensive trip along the Pacific Coast and over the Northwest, spending much of his time in California. His trip was an unusually interesting and pleasant one.

Miss Elsie Day has returned from Hattiesburg, where she attended the summer term at Mississippi Normal College.

Rev. Father A. J. Gmelch returned home yesterday from Canton, Miss., where he spent the week in the interest of matters pertaining to that parish. He was accompanied by his wife, who was also on a visit to her home.

BEAUTIFUL JAPANESE GARDEN AT 'THE PASS' TO BE FEATURE OF VISIT

Following Luncheon and Visit to Bay St. Louis, Members Of Mississippi Garden Clubs Will Spend While Visiting The Hecht Gardens.

One of the most interesting features of the program of Garden Clubs of Mississippi which meets at Gulfport March 22 and 23, is a visit to the beautiful gardens on the Gulf Coast. Some of these gardens rank with the finest in America, and any garden lover should count it a rare treat to be able to visit them.

The visit to the Pass Christian garden will follow a luncheon, and other entertainment to be given at Bay St. Louis on Saturday noon, under auspices of the Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, in compliment to the visiting garden club members while in convention on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

The following description of one of the Pass Christian gardens is released by the Garden Clubs of Mississippi, through the courtesy of the Pass Christian Garden Club.

A bit of ancient Rippon dropped into the fertile soil of "Ole Miss" and springing up in the far-fame, picturesque of that distant island by the sea.

This would be the story in a nutshell. But who wants to crowd into a nutshell, the beauty and charm which lie in the wonderful Japanese garden created in Pass Christian by the artistic taste, the unflagging energy, and the wise and liberal spending vice, water has been used with lavish, but careful hand. Here a pool, there a canal, yonder a miniature lake, its sides and its bridges cerulean colored.

In its center stands a tiny island and one can almost see a lilliputian yacht fleet anchored there.

Scattered through this garden of the gods, one finds the gods themselves, sometimes war-like and truculent; again serene and aloof, as becomes serious minded deities.

Lanterns abound everywhere in the grounds; bronze and stone, stone and bronze, they stand by their posts, adding by night or day, to the beauty of the scene of which they are so important a part. A tall white pagoda is of their brotherhood and when at night, its inner walls, by some clever alchemy of Mrs. Hecht's own, give out a rosy light like unto that of the rising sun.

In the different parts of the grounds and carrying out the illusion that this is really a transplanted bit of a far-away land, one finds little Japanese houses and on entering, the interior is even more faithfully Japanese than the outside.

Even the many slippers just beyond the threshold, for which stepping on the immaculate wadded matting, one must exchange their rude Western foot gear.

The half has not been told of what this wonder-garden holds.

Nice Iron Hossie!
"Hullo, where have you been?"
"To the station to see my wife off for a month's holiday."

"But how black your hands are!"
"Yes, I patted the engine."—Nebelspalter.

ELECTING OFFICERS

A little lassie up in the delta writes the Daily News she has been chosen to represent the negative side in a debate on the subject, "Resolved, that all public officials in Mississippi should be elected by the people," and asks us to suggest a few pertinent points.

Well, little lassie, you ought to win that debate in a walk.

There are more arguments against electing all public officials in Mississippi right now than ever before.

For instance, just look at some of the officials we have; and compare them with the men in public life twenty-five years ago.

Pigmies sit where giants used to rule.

Any little old peanut politician can ride into office by getting together a slush fund and a flimsy, threadbare platform, or the perpetration of issues to stir up strife, partisanship, and factionalism among the unthinking masses.

The old convention plan of selecting officers had its abuses, of course. There was usually much trickery and trading, but in the end intelligent generally triumphed and the best man won.

For a quarter of a century there has been a steady deterioration of our official personnel in Mississippi, and the point has been reached where it is indeed difficult to induce men of more than average ability to offer for office.

It's a sad state of affairs, but it exists nevertheless.—Jackson Daily News.

THINK OF YOUR AUTOMOBILE IN TERMS OF TOMORROW

Ultimate cost is as important as first cost in the purchase of an automobile

WHEN you purchase an automobile you are making an investment of a considerable amount of money. It is essential, therefore, that you give careful thought to the best selection and know what you are getting for your automobile dollars.

The first cost is important because it may mean an immediate, satisfactory saving. Of equal importance is the ultimate cost after thousands of miles of service. This ultimate cost is the true measure of automobile value.

THE first cost of the new Ford is unusually low not only because of economies in manufacturing, but because the same principles that inspire these savings are extended to every other step that means greater service to the public. It is easy to see that economies in production would be of little value if they were sacrificed later through high charges for distribution, selling, financing and accessories.

The Ford dealer, therefore, does business on the same low-profit margin as the Ford Motor Company. His discount or commission is twenty-five to fifty per cent lower than that of any other automobile dealer. You gain because he makes a small profit on many sales instead of a large profit on fewer sales.

The difference in selling cost, combined with the low charges for financing and accessories, amounts to at least $50 to $75 on each car. This is as important as economies in production in keeping down the price you pay for the new Ford.

THE low ultimate cost of the new Ford is the result of sound design, quality of material and unusual care in manufacturing. Friction and wear are reduced by the accuracy with which each part is made and assembled.

These factors combine to decrease the cost of operation and add months and years to the useful life of the car. The good performance and low yearly depreciation of the new Ford are indicative of the enduring quality built into it at the factory.

SERVICE charges are on the same fair, economical basis as the making and selling of the car and replacement parts are always available at low prices through all Ford dealers. In two, three or five years, depending on how much you drive, the saving in operating and maintaining a new Ford will amount to even more than the saving on the first cost.

Think in terms of tomorrow, therefore, when you purchase an automobile. For tomorrow will reveal its true worth.
